

Hall Monitor

The Anchor Hall Monitors are responsible for monitoring the halls during class breaks. The hall monitors need to quietly excuse themselves from the Support Group during class breaks and simply monitor the halls for 5 minutes, making sure all the kids quietly and safely make it to their next class.

Before returning to support group please quickly check the bathrooms to make sure we don't have any students loitering there.